“Medical decisions should be made by doctors and patients – not by a politician who can take millions in contributions from special interests.”

— Dr. Marshall Morgan, MD
Emergency Medicine

“Because of a loophole exempting large corporations, Prop. 45 unfairly hurts small businesses in California.”

— Theresa Martinez
Los Angeles Latino Chamber of Commerce

“The choice is clear: protect affordable health care for millions of Californians. Keep the independent commission and vote No on Prop. 45.”

— Candace Campbell, DNP, RN
American Nurses Association, California

Californians.”

— Dr. Amy Nguyen Howell, MD
Primary Care Physician

But Prop. 45 would replace the Independent Commission system, instead giving control over health coverage to one Sacramento politician.

Proposition 45

X Too Much Power

Gives vast control over health coverage for individuals and small businesses to one Sacramento politician

X Overrides Independent Commission

Power grab that gives a single politician the power to override the health plans negotiated and provided through Covered California

X Takes Millions from Special Interests

Prop. 45 gives massive new power to a politician who can take millions in contributions from special interests

The measure is a power and money grab

[San Diego U-T, 9/9/14]

Prop. 45, a far-reaching initiative, would disrupt the program that has provided health care coverage to millions of previously uninsured Californians. [Sacramento Bee, 9/14/14]

Stop the Political Power Grab | No on Prop. 45

Doctors, Nurses, and Health Care Providers Across California Agree:

Protect the Independent Commission from Prop. 45

Everyone wants to control health care costs, and this year voters have a CLEAR CHOICE.

We can keep the independent commission, Covered California, established to control rates and expand access to affordable health care.

Or, there is Prop. 45 which would give one politician power over our health coverage.

Independent Commission

- ✓ Negotiates rates and benefits on behalf of consumers and small businesses
- ✓ Rejects health plans that are too expensive
- ✓ Millions of people now have affordable health coverage with good benefits

Covered California enrolled 1.2 million people in health insurance, plus 2.2 million others. That's a success of generational proportions. [Sacramento Bee, 9/14/14]
